5D4N CLASSIC VIETNAM DANANG/HOI AN + BANA HILLS

VN5DAD Itinerary effective from Jun 2025

DAY 1: KUALA LUMPUR – DANANG – HOI AN (L/D)

HOTEL: TTC HOI AN HOTEL OR SIMILAR

Assemble at Kuala Lumpur International Airport for your flight to Da nang. Upon arrival, enjoy a local lunch before heading to Hoi An ancient town, a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site. Once a thriving port city with over 1,500 years of history, Hoi An is one of the best-preserved traditional trading ports in Southeast Asia. Visit the Phuc Kien Assembly Hall, a vibrant Chinese temple dedicated to Mazu and is the most representative Phuc Kien Assembly Hall in Hoi An. It also displays many statues and altars, and its architectural style is unique and decorative. Explore the Tan Ky Merchant's House, one of the best-preserved merchant houses in Hoi An. Blending Chinese, Vietnamese, and French design elements, the house features detailed wood carvings and a traditional layout. Passed down through seven generations, it still retains much of its original furniture and trading artifacts. Later, visit the Japanese Bridge, built in the 16th century by Japanese traders. A symbol of cultural exchange, the bridge blends Japanese and Vietnamese architectural styles and is considered one of Hoi An's iconic landmarks.

DAY 2: HOI AN– DANANG (B/L/D)

HOTEL: DANANG MAGNOLIA HOTEL OR SIMILAR

After breakfast, head to Cam Thanh village, a tranquil fishing village surrounded by water coconut palms that preserves the authentic Vietnamese fishing lifestyle. You can also experience bamboo basket boat ride around Cam Thanh River. Next, visit the APEC Sculpture Park, a city green space blending modern art with nature. The park showcases sculptures from artists across the Asia-Pacific region, symbolizing regional cooperation and cultural diversity. Then, explore the Golden Dragon Bridge, one of Da Nang's most recognizable landmarks. Stretching 666 meters long, the bridge is designed as a giant dragon crossing the Han River and serves as an important route connecting the airport, beaches, and city centre. Later, visit the romantic Love Bridge, which spans the Han River and is adorned with numerous heart-shaped love locks. Onwards, head to Linh Ung Pagoda to admire the towering 67-meter-tall Lady Buddha statue, overlooking the breathtaking views of Da Nang Bay.

DAY 3: DANANG– BANA HILL (B/L/D)

HOTEL: DANANG MAGNOLIA HOTEL OR SIMILAR

After breakfast, head to Ba Na Hills and take a cable car to the summit to enjoy breathtaking views above the clouds. Visit the romantic French Village, a themed area based on a medieval European town. With its cobblestone streets, colourful houses, and classic churches, it feels like stepping into a quaint French town. Next, visit the Golden Bridge, a unique 150-meter-long pedestrian bridge held up by two gigantic stone hands that seem to reach out from the clouds, creating a mystical and dreamlike atmosphere. After lunch, visit Le Jardine D'amour (Love Garden), a romantic-themed garden within Ba Na Hills' French Village. It consists of several beautifully designed gardens, each telling its own unique and romantic story. Later, visit Fantasy Park, a large indoor amusement park at the top of Ba Na Hills suitable for all ages. The park features a variety of fun rides and games, including roller coasters, bumper cars, climbing walls, and virtual reality experiences, laughter and excitement for the whole family.

**Stopping stop: Agarwood store

DAY 4: DANANG (B)

HOTEL: DANANG MAGNOLIA HOTEL OR SIMILAR

After breakfast, enjoy a leisurely day to freely explore the coastal city of Da Nang. You can relax on the beach, sample delicious street food, visit local markets or cozy cafes, and soak up the vibrant pace and authentic charm of Da Nang. (Free and easy)
